

DAY 1 – WEDNESDAY, 18 SEPTEMBER 2019

HOUR	PROGRAM	SPEAKER	TICKET PRICE	VENUE, LANGUAGE
08.30 – 10.30	Opening Ceremony National anthem “Indonesia Raya” Hymne PERPAMSI Remarks by Chairman PERPAMSI Remarks and IWWEF Opening by Minister of Public Works and Housing	Minister of Public Works and Housing Chairman PERPAMSI MC: Tysa Novenny (TV One)	By invitation	Plenary Hall Indonesian (with simultaneous translation into English)
10.30 – 11.00	Coffee break: Exhibition opening and tour by Minister of Public Works and Housing	PP PERPAMSI		Exhibition Hall
11.00 – 12.30	Dialogue: Indonesia Water Vision 2019 – 2024 Performed in a talkshow style, a panel of ministries and legislators present the conclusion on the achievement of water and sanitation development in 2014 – 2019 period, as well as further plans of acceleration for the next five years. The talkshow is designed as a room for dialogue among responsible state institutions, covering crucial issues: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - The achievement of 100-0-100 and 10 million household connections target. What went good, what went not so successful. - Will water and sanitation infrastructure be given top priority in the second term of President Jokowi’s administration? - How will the 10 million household connections target be followed up? - How to explain government’s support in terms of regulations and policies, funding commitment and facilities, manpower and technology? 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Coordinating Ministry of Economy - Ministry of National Development Planning (Bappenas)* - Ministry of Finance* - Ministry of Home Affairs* - Ministry of Public Works and Housing* - Commission V DPR RI, Water Law Task Force* Moderator: Tysa Novenny (TV One)	IDR 1 million	Plenary Hall Indonesian (with simultaneous translation into English)
12.30 – 13.30	Lunch Break
13.30 – 16.30	Water Technology Seminar: Industry 4.0 Trends Industry 4.0 is not just a trend. The demand towards digital solution is inevitable. What do we really want to achieve? This seminar offers understanding on what at the heart of Industry 4.0 is, the growing innovation, and how it is implemented in water supply provision and wastewater management.	Schneider, Yokogawa, PT Adhya Tirta Batam, Isle Utilities*	IDR 1 million	Room A English and Indonesian (with consecutive translation)
	World Café: Young Water Professional The future of water is in the hands of our young generation: students who are pursuing diploma and soon seeking a job; those who have been working and improving their career. This young generation needs to be equipped with strong motivation and idealism, qualified competence, and broad insight to interact in global environment.	PERPAMSI, Australian Water Association, Australian Water Partnership	IDR 1 million	Room B English only (speakers and participants speak English)
	TRAINING Master Class NRW (in English) PERPAMSI and WaterLinks once again bring the famous NRW expert, Roland Liemberger, to deliver Master Class training. Training materials include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Assessing NRW - Using Software to Calculate NRW - Developing and Implementing Improvement Plans - Reduction of Physical Losses and Commercial Losses Analysis - Leak Detection Technologies 	Roland Liemberger, WaterLinks, Xylem	IDR 3 million (3 days package)	Room C English only

	TRAINING Process Safety and Chemicals Handling at Water Treatment Plant Training related to securing processes and handling chemicals in water treatment processes is still rarely held in Indonesia. PERPAMSI is collaborating with the Penang Water Services Academy, Malaysia, to provide training covering topics: Safety Awareness, Storage, Emergency Services from Suppliers, Emergency Team Management, Electrical and Mechanical Equipment, Primary and Secondary Chemicals. This training is important to be attended by personnel who are in charge of the Water Treatment Plant, Engineers, Supervisors and Technicians.	Penang Water Services Academy (PWSA)	IDR 3 million (3 days package)	Room D Indonesian (Melayu)
18.30 – 20.30	Gala Dinner (by invitation)	PP PERPAMSI
	Monologue: Water for Jakarta An enlightening and inspirational monologue on how the water problems in Jakarta will be handled by the Jakarta Provincial Government, what is the vision and ideas of governor Anies Baswedan* about water, human rights, and the role of government.	Jakarta Governor Anies Baswedan*	By invitation	Plenary Hall Indonesian (with simultaneous translation into English)

* to be confirmed

DAY 2 – THURSDAY, 19 SEPTEMBER 2019

HOUR	PROGRAM	SPEAKER	TICKET PRICE	VENUE, LANGUAGE
09.00 – 12.00	Water Leaders Forum: My City, My People, My PDAM The governors, regents and mayors are the owners of public water utilities. What is the concern of a regional head to see their people who have no access to safe drinking water? How does APEKSI and APKASI encourage the implementation of smart cities, in meeting water needs? Learn and get inspired by their bright visions.	APEKSI*, APKASI*, Bogor Mayor*, Buleleng Regent*, Surabaya Mayor* Moderator: Bunga Harum Dani	IDR 1 million	Plenary Hall Indonesian
	Water Quality Technology Seminar (CANCELLED)
	WOPs Indonesia-Australia Workshop: Water Utility Improvement Program Indonesia and Australia make a new history of cooperation in the water and sanitation sector through the Water Operators' Partnerships (WOPs) mechanism. This workshop introduces the concept of WOPs, cultural understanding, approaches and methods to improve the performance of waterworks by mutual learning.	Australian Water Association, PERPAMSI, KIAT, Bappenas, BPPSPAM, Australian mentors and Indonesian mentees Moderator: Eko Wiji Purwanto	IDR 1 million Or by invitation	Room B English and Indonesian (with simultaneous translation)
	TRAINING Master Class NRW (lanjutan)	Roland, WaterLinks, Xylem	Package	Room C English
	TRAINING Process Safety and Chemicals Handling at Water Treatment Plant (continue)	Penang Water Services Academy (PWSA)	Package	Room D Indonesian (Melayu)
12.00 – 13.30	Lunch Break
13.30 – 16.00	Regional Forum on NRW Featuring speakers from Southeast Asian countries and Australia, this forum repeats the meeting held by PERPAMSI in 1991, to fit in the present context. What has happened to NRW in Southeast Asia in nearly 30 years? How can we learn from the successes and failures of our neighboring countries? What collaboration can be mobilized in the present?	Indonesia (BPPSPAM and PDAM), Malaysia (Ranhil), Philippines (PAWD)*, Vietnam (VWSA), Australia (AWA), AVK	IDR 1 million	Plenary Hall English and Indonesian (with simultaneous translation)

	Seminar: Australia's Water Technology Introducing various innovation from Austranlia: Smart Water Networks; telemetry and process control; ultrafiltration and Smart Network Solutions; industrial wastewater treatment solutions for Indonesia's water sector; DMI65, iron, manganese, arsenic removal technology for drinking water; Fcubed carocell panels and the REWART System; innovation in water tank design; high efficiency vee-wire Triton Underdrain™ system.	Australian companies	Free	Exhibition Hall, Presentation Room English
	Plumbers' Coffee Shop: Sharing Innovation After carrying out routine tasks, the plumbers gather at a coffee shop to unwind while enjoying coffee, talk about their work, share experiences and discuss in an atmosphere of togetherness. That's how this session will be packed. PDAM Surya Sembada and PT Aetra Air Tangerang* will talk about the courage to innovate, the sweetness of success and how to take wisdom from failure.	PDAM Surabaya, PT Palyja* Barista: Bunga Harum Dani	By invitation	Room B Indonesian
	TRAINING Master Class NRW (continue)	Roland, WaterLinks, Xylem	Package	Room C English
	TRAINING Process Safety and Chemicals Handling at Water Treatment Plant (continue)	Penang Water Services Academy (PWSA)	Package	Room D Indonesian (Malay)

* to be confirmed

DAY 3 – FRIDAY, 20 SEPTEMBER 2019

HOUR	PROGRAM	SPEAKER	TICKET PRICE	VENUE, LANGUAGE
09.00 – 11.45	Talkshow: Gender Equality and Social Inclusion in Water Sector Indonesians have no objection to work together with women in any business sector, be it private or public. More and more women build their careers in water and sanitation sectors. Are they really treated equal? What is the story of women who managed to play a leading roles in Indonesian water utilities? This talkshow aims at raising awareness of equality, to give an equal opportunity for everyone, including those from minority group, those with certain physical or social disabilities.	Ministry of Women Empowerment and Child Protection, Australian Water Association, Australian Water Partnership, women from Indonesian water utilities	IDR 1 million	Merak 1 English and Indonesian (with simultaneous translation)
	Site visit TRAINING Master Class NRW	PT Aetra Air Jakarta, Xylem, WaterLinks	Package	PT Aetra Air Jakarta English
	Site visit TRAINING Process Safety and Chemicals Handling at Water Treatment Plant	PT Palyja, PWSA	Package	IPA Pejompongan PT Palyja Indonesian (Malay)
11.45 – 13.30	Lunch Break, Friday Prayer
13.30 – 16.00	Business Matching Private interest (domestic and foreign) to invest and do business in the development of water supply provision in Indonesia has never subsided. These business people want to understand Indonesian model of PPP and B to B schemes, applicable regulations, and the roles of the parties involved. This session is to bring together Indonesian water utilities that have been ready to work with potential private partners.	BPPSPAM, LKPP*, PDAMs that have been eligible to follow PPP and B to B schemes.	IDR 1,5 million	Merak 1 English and Indonesian (with simultaneous translation)
16.00 – 16.30	Closing (appreciation and the best booth announcement)	PERPAMSI, Debindo		Photobooth in front of Cendrawasih

* to be confirmed